

2016 Project Management Summit

November 11 – 12, 2016

Friday, 11/11/2016
Time	Track	Title	Speaker	Speaker Biography
8:30 AM		Registration & Networking
8:50 AM		Welcome & Opening Remarks
9:00 AM		KEY NOTE - Today's Leadership Environment: Evolution or Revolution	Mr. Jerry Stonecipher	Jerry Stonecipher is an international keynote speaker, educator and founder of Real Take Aways. He helps individuals, teams and organizations understand the importance of personal connections in an ever changing business environment. Jerry's 20 years of organizational leadership, 5,000+ podium hours speaking across 67 major cities in 7 countries and advanced degrees in organizational behavior provide the foundation for his events, but it is his passion for understanding people that allows him to deliver his message.
10:00 AM	Track 1	Personas of Perception: How Are You Perceived as a Project Manager?	Mr. Paul Baumgartner	Paul has managed the gamut of IT projects in his long career as project manager. He is currently a Senior Project Manager at The Christ Hospital, where he manages a portfolio of high-visibility projects for hospital executives. Prior to that Paul spent 8 years managing large software projects for LexisNexis. Paul considers himself as a "practitioner" of project management, with a burning desire to share his learnings from the trenches. In his talks, he speaks to the heart and soul of the project manager, providing unique and humorous perspectives on the role to which all can relate. He presented a paper on how integration projects contribute to e-business success at the PMI Global Congress. He currently writes for ProjectManagement.com and has previously written for the Cincinnati Business Courier. He has taught project management for Xavier University, the University of Phoenix, and Boston University. He was one of the first 10,000 people in the world to earn the PMP.
	Track 2	The Scaled Agile Framework - SAFe in 8 Pictures	Ms. Betsy Irizarry	Betsy Irizarry is an Agile and SAFe Program Consultant with a passion for helping people progress along their Agile transformation journey in a realistic way. She has partnered with teams, programs, portfolios, and executives around the world to understand their current state and help them evaluate the Scaled Agile Framework as a way to improve their delivery of business value. She also leads a variety of SAFe training classes for people at all levels of the organization. Betsy has over 15 years of experience working in close partnership with product and technology teams as a project manager, Scrum Master, and consultant.
11:00 AM		Coaching the Skeptical: Building the Bridge for Empowerment	Dr. Peter Titlebaum	Dr. Peter Titlebaum, Professor of Sport Management at the University of Dayton, Ohio, has more than 30 years' experience in marketing and sales in the profit, non-profit, private and public sectors. He speaks and writes on areas of networking, organizational and personal development, and educating audiences to be their own advocates
12:00 PM		Lunch & Networking

2016 Project Management Summit

November 11 – 12, 2016

1:00 PM		Introduction to Benefits Realization	Mr. Dave Davis	Dave Davis, PMP, PgMP, & PBA is a practitioner of project and program management and a recognized professional in the field of helping businesses implement change. With over 30 years' experience in private enterprise as a manager, project manager, program manager, business analyst, and knowledge manager. Dave holds 3 master's degrees including an MBA and eBusiness Project Management. He has published many articles and delivered presentations throughout the world; including the PMI Pulse of the Profession. He has held many roles within the Project Management Institute including executive roles at local and national components, serving on Standards committees, and writing questions for the certification exam. Dave currently has an active blog on projectmanagement.com, which drives his PMI influence score of 85 / 100.
2:00 PM	Track 1	Communication Styles: Picking Up the Pieces When Things Break Down	Ms. Teresa Lowen	Teresa Lowen, PMP, is currently a Linguist with Leidos, Inc. Her abilities to translate go beyond foreign languages. In her work she can be found "translating" concepts and attitudes between various types of people. This can include having to "interpret" communications between functional types, such as between government employees, contractors, and the public, or between military officers and civilians or scientists and program managers. However, more often than not, it all comes down to "translating" between different personalities or communications styles. She has studied a tool called the Enneagram for 20 years and finds within it extremely practical and systematic solutions to what are general considered "soft-skill" issues, such as communications
	Track 2	Changing Needs of Domain Knowledge for PMs in Industry, Research, and Education	Ms. Suzanne Marie	Suzanne Marie is a Program Director with National Science Foundation and adjunct Program Director /Advisor with BTL Global Institute. She has 20 plus years of successful Project Management includes leading virtual, cross-functional, high-performance teams and over 5 years of responsibility negotiating global contracts with high annual savings and win-win outcomes, crosses the technical, communication and leadership areas where she consistently indulges her passion for learning and teaching others through facilitating organizational change
3:00 PM		Managing from the Middle	Dr. Michael Gaines	Dr. Michael Gaines currently serves as the Director of Central State University, Dayton Campus. Michael has over 25 years of experience in public speaking, having presented at national conferences, and at churches and non-profit organizations throughout the Midwest. He is an aspiring author with his first book, "Fail Into Success", scheduled for release in 2016. He has served on a number of Dayton community boards including Parity Inc., Big Brothers and Big Sisters, and Mound Street Academy. His awards are varied including the Dayton Business Journal's 40 under 40 award and Parity's Top 10 African American Male award.
4:00 PM		Keep Calm and Story Map On! Agile Workshop	Ms. Wendy Jacobs & Mr. Nathan Lusher	Wendy Jacobs: Wendy is an Agile Coach and Product Manager with Cardinal Solutions Group. Her passions are building cool products and mentoring and coaching on Product Management topics. Nathan Lusher: Nate is an Agile Coach at CoverMyMeds in Columbus Ohio. His focus is on helping teams learn to leverage Agile, Lean, and XP techniques to build great software and delight customers.

2016 Project Management Summit

November 11 – 12, 2016

Saturday 11/12/2016
Time	Track	Title	Speaker	Speaker Biography
8:30 AM		Registration & Networking
8:50 AM		Welcome & Opening Remarks
9:00 AM		KEY NOTE - The Art and Science of Leadership Through Improvisation	Mr. Andrew Tarvin	Andrew Tarvin is the world's first Humor Engineer. He teaches people how to enjoy their jobs more while doing them better. Andrew has worked with thousands of people from 200+ organizations, including P&G, GE, and Microsoft, on topics ranging from mastering office communication to humor in the workplace. Combining his background as a project manager at Procter & Gamble and his experience in performing over 1,000 shows as an international comedian, Andrew teaches people how to get better results while having more fun. He is a best-selling author, has been featured in The Wall Street Journal, Forbes, TEDx, and FastCompany, and has delivered talks in 50 states, 18 countries, and 3 continents. He loves the color orange and is obsessed with milkshakes. For more, visit www.HumorThatWorks.com .
10:00 AM	Track 1	Strategic Leadership in P3M: The keys to Understanding the Team, Decisions, and Process of Collaboration	Mr. Sandip Basu	Sandip is the current President of Southwest Ohio PMI. He is a disciplined, self-motivated entrepreneur with a diversified background and interests. He has 22+ years of experience in systems acquisition, implementation for multi-million-dollar technology programs, and a variety of program-project management in public and private sectors. As a founding CEO and Principal at Soft Vista, Inc., Sandip demonstrates visionary and change-agent leadership for diverse group of teams, systems, and business functions. Sandip serves as a member in the Executive Advisory Boards of the Economics and MIS departments of Williams College of Business at Xavier University. He is also a mentor for the students of the Xavier's nationally known Mentoring Program. Sandip is active in professional communities and a social media contributor. He speaks occasionally at networking events, chapter events, and universities and colleges about project management as well as management strategy and skills.
	Track 2	Project Management Trends in Manufacturing and Engineering Education	Dr. Augustus Morris	Dr. Morris is the professor and chair of the Manufacturing Engineering department at Central State University. He has deep background in engineering and manufacturing. He has administered projects and grants from National Science Foundation. He is the campus representative for the NASA/Ohio Space Grant Commission.
11:00 AM		Integrating Multiple PMO's Effectively for Enhanced Results	Ms. Pam Nintrup, PMP, CSSMBB, CPC	As President of Project and Process Professionals, a company formed to provide education and coaching on project and process management with a strong focus on soft skills, productivity and efficiency, Pam has helped many organizations and individuals improve their ability to deliver projects, improve processes and manage life. She has 25+ years of experience, is certified as a Project Management Professional, Six Sigma Master Black Belt, and Certified Professional Coach. She is passionate about helping others and wants to see everyone achieve success! Pam is a Past President of the Southwest Ohio PMI Chapter and immediate Past President of the Greater Cincinnati chapter of the Association for

2016 Project Management Summit

November 11 – 12, 2016

				Talent Development. She was also honored with the Small Business Hero Award from PMI Southwest Ohio chapter for her dedication to growing the project management profession.
12:00 PM		Lunch & Networking
1:00 PM		Agile at Scale: Explore Using Agile on a Large Global Scale	Mr. Andrew Burns	Andy Burns, PMP, PMI-ACP, is a proud, "traditional project manager". Burns is Chief Scrum Master at one of the largest product lifecycle management (PLM) software companies. Burns Scrums at scale with 50+ teams across the globe. As a PMI Global volunteer, Burns mentors the 24 Chapters in Region 4.
2:00 PM		Applying Agile to Stage Gate Development Projects	Mr. Eric Weston	Mr. Weston is currently the Director of LSI Industries. He has also a Past President of the Dayton PMI chapter.
3:00 PM	Track 1	Why Change Management is Hard and What PMs Can Do About It	Mr. Chad Millette	Chad Millette, PMP, is a retired Air Force officer, a current Air Force civilian instructor, and owner of Millette Consulting, LLC. While in the Air Force, he managed projects involving business and information system software development, infrared countermeasures, and space satellite systems. Chad's last PM assignment was leading a 150-person organization executing $350 million annually to develop and field intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance sensors. He shares this experience as a project management instructor at the Air Force Institute of Technology; teaching best practices to over 200 Air Force civilian and military PMs a year. As owner of his own company, Chad provides management and youth sports consulting services including speaking, instruction, and clinics.
	Track 2	Leading Change - Approach to Build an Environment for Sustained Change	Ms. Jaclyn Smith	Jaclyn Smith is the Vice President of CareSource University at CareSource, a Medicaid managed care organization. She is a learning and performance professional with over 20 years of experience, and has worked in a variety of organizations and industries in both the for-profit and not-for-profit sectors as well as running her own Learning & Performance firm. At CareSource, she oversees corporate learning, organizational development, and succession planning as well as the company's performance management processes. Jackie lives with her husband in Dayton, Ohio. Jaclyn has presented national and regional conferences on a variety of skills and building the case for corporate universities.
4:00 PM		Managing Complex ERP Projects	Ms. Angela Turner	Ms. Turner has recently relocated to the Dayton area from Columbia, SC. She has worked in both the public and private sector with a very large program for the State of SC. Ms. Turner have spoken several times on the difference between managing projects in public vs. private sector. She has presented at ASUG in Orlando. She also has considerable experience implementing SAP.
5:00 PM				